The meeting was quorate

Apologies: Cllr D Clancy, Cllr R Walls,

2. Declarations of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests relating to items on the agenda

None required.

3. To discuss new noticeboard and village map

It was agreed to accept the quote from Furnitubes for a Westminster Lectern with an A2 display case in green. The cost of this is £695 ex VAT including delivery.

It was further agreed to start work on the village map – the maximum cost of this plus printing will be £215.

The Clerk will confirm an installation cost with Streetscene initially and then decide whether further quotes are required – this cost will be agreed at the next meeting.

Final siting to be agreed but this will be positioned somewhere on the village green.

£500 has already been secured from the Community fund to assist payment for this.

4. To discuss the phone box, removal of equipment and potential usage and refurbishment

The telephone equipment has now been removed from the phone box and the village has indicated it would like to see this used as a village lending library possibly with DVD's and jigsaws.

This will be discussed in more depth at the next meeting. The Clerk has found a company who provide parts for phone boxes.

5. Meeting Close

The meeting closed at 11.30pm
